

is for success

receipts (ADRs). "Emerging markets over the long run will pay off far more handsomely than buying stocks in the industrially developed world," he writes.

► Always invest for the long term. Here's the icing on the cake. Marcial picks seven stocks for the next seven years. He backs his potential winners with solid explanations of why investors should consider these company shares. His favorites include Apple, Boeing and CVS Caremark.

Marcial isn't one to waffle about stocks he likes. He has the guts to swing for the fences and make some bold predictions. He's been doing this for years. It's his job. And he's good at it. Track records don't lie.
